

Indiana's no-call law has been a GODSEND ! Please do nothing to weaken it. I don't need to, nor want to, be bothered at all hours by bankers, telephone companies, or credit card companies. My right of enjoyment of my home is violated by these intrusions and I look to the FCC to protect me against them.